

The Senior

ORAOTTE

June 10, 2005 Volume 41 Number 12
West Springfield High School 6100 Rolling Road Springfield, Virginia 22152

As a class, we have seen the best and the worst the world has to offer...

On the Tuesday of our second week of freshman year, the collapse of the World Trade Center blackened the beginning of our high school career with shock and grief. A year later, snipers threatened our security and restricted our school activities. Our most wrenching losses occurred during what should have been the happiest year of our high school lives, when three of our friends were taken away.

These disasters both discouraged and strengthened us. In the toughest of times, we abandoned individual hardships and united to support each other. As a class, we have proven ourselves capable of overcoming whatever obstacles we encounter with grace and compassion.

No tragedy can outshine the good memories we made during our four years at WS. We've tried new things, experienced love – or something like it – for the first time, figured out what we want and who we want to be, and most importantly, formed incredible friendships. Whether it be simple hugs in the hallway helping us make it through the madness of the school week, cheering on friends at sporting events, or sharing in weekend escapades, we will always treasure each other and the fabulous times we had together.

Andrew, Sendy, Adam – you are remembered and missed. We know that this June when we graduate, you will be walking alongside us in spirit.

Andrew, Sendy, Adam – you are remembered and missed. We know that this June when we graduate, you will be walking alongside us in spirit.

Andrew, Sendy, Adam – you are remembered and missed. We know that this June when we graduate, you will be walking alongside us in spirit.

We are strong. We are resilient. We are 2005.

Top 10 Things We'll Miss

Top 10 Things We Won't Miss

10. Going away for vacation instead of coming home
9. Underclassmen looking up to you
8. Having to only walk down the hall to get to your next class
7. Snow days
6. Being a "rebel," and then going home and telling your mom everything you did
5. Once-in-a-lifetime experiences our kids will ask us about, like homecoming and prom
 4. Wall murals in Senior Hall
 3. Reminiscing about how your best friend ate glue in first grade
 2. Teachers who know more about you than your name and GPA
 1. Senior privileges

10. Having to take annoying standardized tests (SOLs, AP, SAT, ACT)
 9. Applying to college
 8. Notebook and homework checks, and other pointless busy work
 7. Switching counselors every year
 6. Having to sneak out to get Subway and other edible food
 5. SR&R day
 4. Being crushed and suffocated in the Hollywood and Vine traffic
 3. Attendance and hall passes (not that hall passes actually matter)
 2. Gaggles of girls shrieking in freshman hallway
 1. Smell of freshman hallway

Top 10 Ways to Get Suspended

10. Actually get caught by security when leaving for lunch.
 9. Dance on the gym floor during pep rallies.
 8. Paint a rival school's rock.
 7. Run onto the football field in a chicken suit.
 6. Throw helpless animals at senior girls during pep rallies.
 5. Stage naughty rendezvous in the bathrooms.
 4. Initiate high-speed car races in the parking lot.
 3. Strip at the Powder Puff game.
 2. Drive around the school with a toy gun.
 1. Steal the master key to the lockers.

How To Survive Senior Year

1. Don't take five AP classes.
2. Wait until the night before they're due to do college applications.
3. Apply only to colleges that don't require essays.
4. Figure out the best TV shows on at 3 a.m., in case you are insane enough to take those 5 APs.
5. Amass the Cliffs Notes collection of all the books you should read for English class.
 6. Come up with a good idea for a calculus T-shirt.
 7. Get a parking spot, no matter how expensive, so that you can take the second-semester open campus option.
 8. Convince your last period teachers that seniors get out at 1:05, not 2:05, on Fridays.
 9. Do not struggle against senioritis—it overcomes even the best, starting in September.
 10. Plan early on how you are going to smuggle air horns and beach balls into graduation.

A student-run publication to inform and entertain the students and staff of West Springfield High School and the Springfield community. We publish articles written with as little reporter bias as possible. Opinion is expressed in Viewpoint and in reviews and columns. Editorials represent the opinion of at least two-thirds of the Editorial Board and do not reflect the views of the advisor, the administration, or the Fairfax County Public School System. The Oracle reserves the right to reject advertising deemed inappropriate. Signed letters to the editor and personal commentary will be considered for publication, but could be edited for grammar, spelling, and space.

Teen Commandments

1. Don't let your parents down; they brought you up.
2. Choose your companions with care; you become what they are.
3. Be master of your habits or they will master you.
4. Treasure your time; don't spend it.
5. Stand for something or you'll fall for anything.
6. Select only a date who would make a good mate.
7. See what you can do for others; not what they can do for you.
8. Guard your thoughts; what you think, you are.
9. Don't fill up on this world's crumbs; feed your soul on the Living Bread.
10. Give your all to Christ; He gave His all for you.

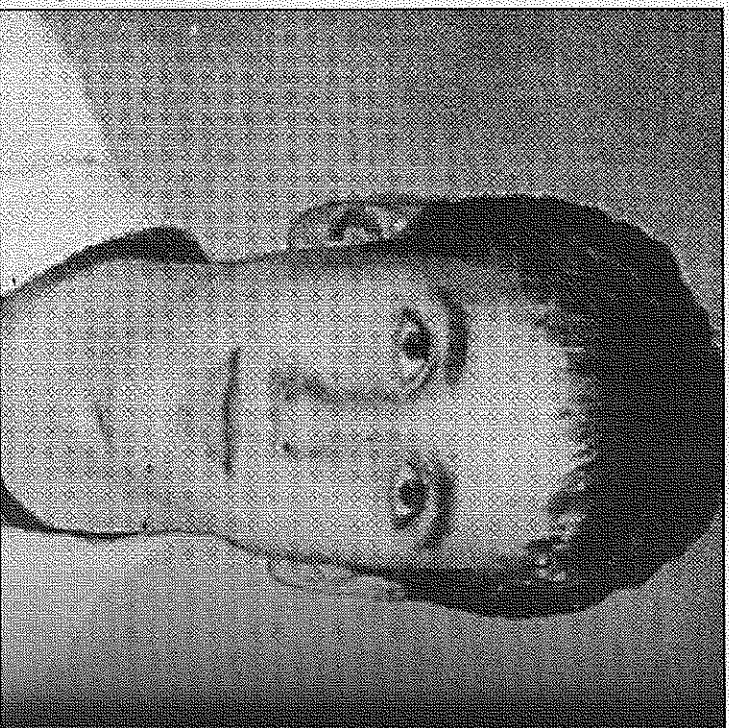

FCA is about coaches and athletes
